

PETROLEUM V. NASBY.

Mr. Nasby's Views as to What the Democratic Success Really Means.
(From the Toledo Blade.)

CONFERENCE X ROAD,
Which is in the State of Ohio, says—
John P. ISSA.

The debate in the Senate over the prints in the utterances of that reckles and audacious rebel, the South, General Sherman, in the late Yonality States army, which stigmatized the loved and revered Jefferson Davis, President of the Suspended Confederacy, as a traitor, don't appear to please some of our allies in the thin-skinned Democracy up the North, which keep a mouth that it would be fit bettered the Southern Senators keep their mouths shut.

These timid Democrats don't have a sleeve ready to wet wuz the red moon in the late Presidential election, which resulted in the triumphant election of Mr. Lincoln to the Presidency.

They don't seem to understand that it was in a sense a trial and endorsement by the Democratic party, except for so the Democratic party represents the suspended but not dead Confederacy. We are the South just as the last but part loosely held in mind.

In just the Southern States entered upon in the last election, General Sherman has been elected for the war.

William G. Pittman wants you to know a position. Wm. John Morgan's name mentioned from time to time, and the war. Wm. John Morgan, during his service in the South, was elected to the Southern upper house, but he is now Northern again, and has been elected to the Northern lower house, and is now a member of the House of Representatives.

Endorsed. "No good. Every Democrat in the corner kin show sick testimonies."

John Thompson applies for a place in post-office. Wuz in the war at all, on either side. Knows nothing about politics, and don't keep a snap about em, any how. Hez bin in the post-office department twenty years and knows the business through and through. Is marked A for safety and off-shore. Never had a complaint agin him. Wants to be continued, for hev bin big in the service so long he only don't know what to do.

Endorsed. "This rekest is absurdly impudent. The place is just adapted to Kernal McPherter brother, who is just as good a station or barkkeeper in the Gem 'Long Long' line."
